

The harbour of the city

Aarhus Lystbådehavn (Yacht harbour) is full of life and activity. The marina of the city!

When you moor your boat here, you are on the front row. On sunny days the harbour is an attraction for happy locals and many of the city's students.

By the entry to the harbour the new sail sports centre is located, this was the venue for the sailing world championship 2018.

Immediately east of the harbour, you will find the new exciting urban development called Aarhus Ø (Aarhus Island), where apartment buildings, student housing, offices, public service and shops are shooting up along the newly built canals.

Aarhus Ø also offers sea bath (entry free) for swimming with a wide range of Take-away, drinking places and cafes.

On the west side of the harbour area, you will find the authentic harbour atmosphere with a variety of fishmongers, rowing clubs and the wooden ships harbour with its smell of tar and adventure.

Aarhus Marina is situated just 10-12 minutes from the Latin Quarter with its selection of restaurants, odd cafés and local pubs.

This is where the term "the smallest metropolis of the world" was born!
